

Call for Papers for Parergon

Journal of the Australian and New Zealand Association for Medieval and Early Modern Studies Inc. (ANZAMEMS)

We invite established scholars, early career academics and advanced postgraduates to submit research articles for publication in Parergon, the journal of the Australian and New Zealand Association for Medieval and Early Modern Studies (ANZAMEMS).

Parergon is an international, double-blind peer-reviewed journal that publishes on all aspects of medieval and early modern literature, history, arts and culture. We are especially interested in material that crosses traditional disciplinary boundaries and takes new approaches. Parergon is published as two issues per year; one of these is open-themed and the other is a guest-edited Special Issue.

Parergon is edited from the Centre for Medieval and Early Modern Studies at The University of Western Australia, is fully refereed, and has an international Advisory Board. Parergon asks its authors to achieve international standards of excellence. Articles should be substantially original, advance research in the field, and have the potential to make a significant contribution to the critical debate. We do not accept submissions that have already been published elsewhere.

Parergon is included in the Clarivate Analytics Master Journal List of refereed journals and in the European Reference Index for the Humanities (ERIH), and is indexed for nine major database services, including ABELL, IMB and Scopus.
