

The top of the poster features a stylized illustration of books and writing instruments. On the left, there are several books stacked, with one book having a yellow cover. On the right, there are three writing instruments: a blue pen, a white pen, and a blue pen, all pointing downwards.

THE PERTH MEDIEVAL AND RENAISSANCE
GROUP AND STUDY-SMARTER PRESENT

CONFERENCE MASTERCLASS

For Undergraduates and Postgraduate students

APRIL 5 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM LAW LECTURE ROOM
UWA

TO REGISTER GO TO:
HTTP://TINYURL.COM/Y5Q9DRYW

FOR QUESTIONS CONTACT:
LAURA.COLLIER@RESEARCH.UWA.EDU.AU

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The Perth Medieval and Renaissance Group (PMRG) was established in 1981 and we are passionate about supporting research into the culture, life and history of the Medieval and Early Modern period, both at the postgraduate and undergraduate level.

We want YOU to come and join us for a masterclass on developing conference skills and abstract writing, with the ultimate goal of presenting a paper at PMRG's annual conference in October!

WHAT IS INVOLVED IN THE MASTERCLASS?

On the day you can expect to get help and advice from lecturers and professors on the following:

- Crafting an Abstract
- Sourcing Calls For Papers (CFPs)
- How and which professional memberships to join to pursue your research interests
- Public Speaking skill and general conference help

WHAT MAKES THIS MASTERCLASS UNIQUE?

PMRG's masterclass is one of a kind because it allows you to:

- Present an abstract on the day as though it were an actual paper at a conference.
- Then, experience questions afterwards (and learn how to craft questions for speakers.)

But don't be afraid, this will all take place in a supportive environment with your peers. And, it may lead to you being able to present at the PMRG conference on the 19th of Oct.